Celebrating the important role of parents in student achievement

Marilyn and Tommy Bernard

Arbor Hill Elementary School

The Bernards dedicate all of their spare time and energy to Arbor Hill Elementary School. They are the school's biggest cheerleaders. They not only are concerned about the outcomes of success for their own children, but for all children that attend the school. Tommy also serves as vice president of the school's PTA, and Marilyn as treasurer.

“It is important to be involved in our children’s education because, although they are our future leaders, we need to nurture their learning abilities so they can reach their full potential. The only way our children have the ability to succeed in this world is to get involved and stay involved in their education.”
