THE LARAMIE PROJECT

By Moisés Kaufman & the Members of the Tectonic Theater Project • Directed by Ward Dales
November 19-21 at 7 pm, November 22 at 2 pm

In 1998 the brutal murder of Matthew Shepard tore apart the quiet town of Laramie, Wyoming. Moved and disturbed by the international media blitz, a NYC-based theatre company traveled to Laramie in hopes of telling the real story of the hate crime and subsequent trial. Compiled from interviews and court transcripts, this touching true story transcends the persecution of a single minority group, exploring core issues of hate and violence, and the indelible scars they leave on communities plagued by intolerance. Panel discussions with community experts will follow each performance. (Contains mature subject matter and strong language. May not be suitable for all audiences.)
